Face Painter

Summary

Provides a quick way to change the color of faces. You pick a collection of faces (either individually or by dragging a rectangle), choose a color, and click Apply. Colors are chosen using the standard Windows color palette, not the NX one

User Interface

The user interface is created using a BlockForm: